

Raising awareness of each child’s situation and circumstances is vital in the education process. Schools and head teachers need be made aware of any allegations raised against their pupils in order not only to have a complete overview of each student, but also to fulfil a vital role in child protection.

The appeals module also covers:

Providing a holistic view of each child

Raising notifications via referral

Detailed allegation reporting

Stay notified of allegation outcomes

Helping you to stay on top of teacher training regarding child protection

Keeping sensitive information secure

Peace of mind is essential in processing and storing such sensitive data as that around child protection records. Supported by CACI’s security framework, you utilise your data in the most appropriate fashion by ensuring only those professionals who need access to such information can access it.

This helps you to stay on top of the circumstances surrounding all your pupils, whilst securely manoeuvring around their personal data, ensuring that you remain compliant with regulations such as GDPR.
